

Lobbying Information

Washington County belongs to two organizations that involve lobbying, the Virginia Association of Counties and the National Association of Counties. Both of these organizations lobby legislators regarding matters of particular relevance to local county government. Lobbying is not the main function of these organizations. These organizations provide a large array of other services and educational benefits to their members.

- Virginia Association of Counties Annual Dues - $12,139.00
- National Association of Counties Annual Dues - $ 1,042.00